

OE Knock Cam & Crank Sensors

Manufactured to the highest quality and original equipment specifications.

New OEM Knock, Cam and Crankshaft sensors are now offered for the first time as a new product category in the OEM program. These parts are for both professional technicians and DIYer's alike who want peak performance, with long service, and that's exactly what you get with Continental.

Our parts are made in ISO certified facilities and provide simpler installation with specific vehicle fit and function. They withstand the harshest conditions and are engineered to the highest quality. These are premium genuine brand replacement parts that you know will fit every time. Which in return will mean reduced comebacks and installation times.
